

Mrs. Cecilia Key Guertin, 66, daughter of Thomas White Key, who surveyed the Texas-Mexico boundary for the United States, and the grand-niece of Francis Scott Key, author of the "Star Spangled Banner," passed away this morning. Her husband, L. G. Guertin, passed away some time ago. Four children survive, Mrs. H. F. Burmester of this city and Mrs. A. G. Richardson of Breckenridge, Texas, E. B. Guertin of Washington, and M. K. Guertin of Liberty, Texas. Mrs. S. D. Miller of this city is a sister. Brothers surviving are T. W. Key of Amarillo, Texas, and S. C. Key of Liberty, Tex. The body, which is at Mottell's parlors, will be sent to Liberty for interment. It will be accompanied by E. B. Guertin.—Long Beach (Cal.) Press.

The funeral services of Mrs. Guertin were held at the Methodist church at 2:30 Friday afternoon, in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. Beautiful floral offerings entirely covered the casket. She was laid to rest by the side of her departed husband, L. G. Guertin and cousin, George Hollimon, in the City cemetery.

Cecelia Gertin obit

Clipped By:

c_warner78

Tue, Feb 10, 2015